Customer/Guarantor Credit Information: Each of the proposed customer, its principal's and every person who may be a guarantor of the requested financing, understands that Studebaker-Worthington needs to evaluate their credit history and financial condition to determine whether to approve the proposed financing, and in order to permit them to perform such evaluation, each such person and entity authorizes Studebaker-Worthington to obtain and use consumer credit reports, bank references and other information obtained from third parties. Studebaker-Worthington is further authorized to share such information with its affiliates and other parties requesting the same.

To help the United States Government fight terrorism and money laundering, Federal law requires us to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or business that opens an account or establishes a relationship. What this means for you when you open an account or establish a relationship, we will ask for your name, street address, date of birth, and identification number, such as a social security number or tax payer identification number. For businesses, we will ask for the business name, street address and tax identification number. Federal law requires us to obtain this information. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents that will allow us to identify you. We appreciate your cooperation.
